Launch of the Essential Packages Manual, a comprehensive guide for successful SRHR programmes for young people

Date: Tuesday 17 May, 2016
Time: 7:00 – 8:00 AM (light breakfast provided)
Location: Room B4-1
Facilitators: Ishmael Selassie (PPAG, Ghana) & Woutine van Beek (SRHR Alliance, the Netherlands)
RSVP: w.vanbeek@rutgers.nl

You must be registered at Woman Deliver 2016 global conference to attend this side event

Are you developing or implementing sexual and reproductive health and rights programmes for young people?

Do you want guidance to review your programmes in line with a rights-based and gender-transformative approach?

Join our interactive side event and you'll get:

- the ins-and outs of the guide, how it came about and how it could be useful for you
- a feel of working on values, essential conditions and commitments in SRHR programmes and collaborations
- first hand experiences and recommendations from SRHR programme implementers from Africa and Asia
- your own copy of the Essential Packages Manual!

Experience the Dutch Approach, visit us at the Holland House!

From 17 to 19 May, the SRHR Alliance will be present at the Holland House, located at C2-067, 068, 081, 082 in Bella Center. Together with several northern and southern partners we will facilitate many exciting and interactive sessions on SRHR. Join our sessions or come and find us for a meet & greet with our SRHR Alliance professionals.

We hope to see you there!
